

115 FOR SALE BY BARNARD-DALLAS

15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 TOTAL No. VOTES MAJORITY

OFFICE OR QUESTION VOTED ON NAMES OF CANDIDATES

Stock Law
Cattle

(Election) (No 1) For the Stock Law
44 46 44 52 62 92 59 47 10 25 8 21 33

Against the Stock Law
12 7 7 11 57 26 4 11 2 3 10 10 15

Stock Law (No. 2.) For letting horses, mules, jacks, jennets and donkeys run at large
Horses, Mules, jacks, Jennets and Donkeys
13 10 6 4 48 18 8 11 5 8 2 7 15

Against letting Horses, mules, jacks, jennets and donkeys run at large
43 42 44 55 64 103 55 48 7 20 16 25 28

The July 5th, 1957 Order of Election signed by County Judge Grady Fuller reads:
Those voters desiring to prevent cattle from running at large shall place upon their ballot the words "For the Stock Law".
"Those in favor of allowing cattle to run at large shall place upon their ballot "Against the Stock Law".
944 votes were cast For the Stock Law.
393 votes were cast Against the Stock Law.

22 36 17 23 7 9 56 6 25 69 34 17 19 12 10 7 16 11 5 944

2 48 39 9 7 5 7 1 34 10 34 1 4 3 3 4 1 4 2 393

4 31 24 7 4 8 8 2 31 8 20 1 6 1 4 2 0 2 2 330

20 51 32 25 10 5 55 6 26 70 47 17 14 14 11 9 17 13 4 996

330 votes were cast For letting horses, mules, jacks, jennets and donkeys run at large.
996 votes were cast Against letting horses, mules, jacks, jennets and donkeys run at large.